SHINE

(STUDENTS HUMAN INVOLVEMENT IN NEIGHBOURHOOD EMPOWERMENT)

Annual Report 2024-2025

1. INTRODUCITON:

Experiential learning is one of the many innovative educational strategies that the Jesuits employ around the world to ‘give total human formation of mind, heart and body. Loyola College, Mettala is committed to serving neighbouring villages and their people by inspiring its students to give back to the society what they learn in classrooms. And outreach Programme SHINE (STUDENTS HUMANE INVOLVEMENT IN NEIGHBOURHOOD EMPOWERMENT) facilitates mutual learning.

Through SHINE Our students visit neighbouring villages, meet the people, share their learning with them. They also take up activities such as awareness on health and Education, Environmental cleanliness, Capacitating or Training Youth and Women on Vocations Skills, Career guidance to children, assisting needy people to get social sector Govt. Schemes etc.

On 17th August 24, the Outreach department of Loyola College of Arts and Science, SHINE Inauguration organized in the presence of Ayilpatti and Karkoodal Patti presidents. All the second-year students went to the different villages to meet the people and share their learning with them. In the process of learning, they also served the society.

On November 21st, Loyola College's Outreach Department collaborated with Dr. Sudhakar ENT Hospital & Lawrence and Mayo to conduct a health camp in Ayilpatty. This camp aimed to provide medical service to the rural community.

On November 28th, Loyola College's Metalla Outreach Department collaborated with Mr. Jakkayan, leader of the Adi Tamilar Party, to distribute relief materials, including groceries, to 40 families. This event was well supported by the management of Loyola College of Arts & Science, Mettala.
