International Women's Day – 08.03.2025

Loyola College, Mettala, celebrated International Women's Day on March 8, 2025, with great enthusiasm, focusing on women's empowerment and awareness. The event commenced with a rally, emphasizing the importance of women's rights and gender equality.

Rally for Women Empowerment

The rally was flagged off by our esteemed Chief Guest, Mr. Vijayakumar, M. Com., B.L., DSP, who raised the green flag to mark the beginning of the awareness march. Faculty members, students, and police officers actively participated in the rally, advocating for women's empowerment. As a token of appreciation, buttermilk and biscuits were provided to the police officers and students at the end of the rally.

A highlight of the event was the drone photography session, where students came together to form the words "SAVE GIRLS" on the ground. This powerful visual representation was captured using a drone camera, symbolizing the collective effort to spread awareness on protecting and empowering girls.

The formal celebration of Women's Day began shortly after the rally. The event was graced by Mrs. K. Saradhamani, Secretary, Bharathi Group of Institutions, as the Chief Guest, and Mrs. V. Kalpana Dharmendra, a renowned motivational speaker, as the Guest of Honour.
